

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS
H. SAMUEL KRUSE
SILVER MEDAL FOR DESIGN/SERVICE

The Board of Directors of the Miami Chapter of the American Institute of Architects is pleased to announce a call for nominations for AIA Miami's Silver Medal as part of its 2017 Honors and Awards Program. The Nomination Submittal must be received by no later than 5PM, Friday, September 22, 2017. The Award will be presented at the AIA Miami Design Awards and Gala on Friday, October 27th.

PURPOSE

The Silver Medal recognizes an individual architect for his or her accomplishments over an extended period of time for either Design or Leadership and Service to the profession; and who, by their example, advances the cause of architecture, the profession and provides inspiration to their fellow architects. The Silver Medal is the highest honor AIA Miami awards. Bestowal is to be taken most seriously by the nominator; honorably, justly and manifestly due with achievements most carefully considered by the nominator, jury and the AIA Miami Board of Directors.

ELGIBILITY for AWARD

Nominee must have completed ten cumulative years of AIA membership prior to the nomination deadline. An architect may receive the Silver Medal by either two means:

- An architect whose career encompasses a minimum of ten years of exemplary service to the architectural profession and who can present a complete dossier showing their participation in furthering the goals of the profession at the local, state or national level, may be considered for award of the Silver Medal for Service to the Profession.
- An architect having an extended design career who has received a minimum of ten local, state or national American Institute of Architecture design awards may be considered for award of the Silver Medal for Design.

Only one medal in each of the categories of Service to the Profession or Design may be awarded to an active member of AIA Miami in any given year. The Silver Medal may be withheld in any given year.

NOMINATIONS

A candidate can be nominated in two ways: by five AIA members, or by the Nominating Committee appointed by the Board.

SELECTION and AWARD

A jury composed of a minimum of three previous recipients recommends nominees to the Board for the award. The AIA Miami Board of Directors votes on the jury's recommendation. A three-quarters affirmative vote by the Board is required to make an award.
