PART 2 - JANUARY 23 @ NOON est

5 Things You Need to Do NOW to Pass the ARE in 2021

In order to pass the ARE exams, you need to do more than just study. You need to change your mindset and learn how to read and understand what the question is asking.

- If you've been putting off starting your exams, this webinar is for you.
- If you've been waiting until the new format is launched, this webinar is for you.
- If you're hoping to finally finish your exams this year, this webinar is for you.
- Understand how to deal with the new changes in the digital whiteboard and break tools
- Uncover new methods to manage your time and comfortably finish the exam
- Discover how to read the questions to uncover clues and quickly find the answer

These FREE webinars are your chance to kick off the new year right and get started on your plan to get licensed! We'll talk-thru real world questions and show you how to approach and answer with confidence!
