

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS 2025 AIA HALL OF FAME

The Board of Directors of the Miami Chapter of the American Institute of Architects is pleased to announce a call for nominations for AIA Miami's Hall of Fame Award as part of the 2025 Honors and Awards Program. The Nomination Submittal must be received no later than 5:00 P.M. Friday, September 20, 2025. The Award will be presented at the AIA Miami Design Awards Celebration on October 24.

PURPOSE

The AIA Miami Hall of Fame Award recognizes individual architects for their career accomplishments, their membership and support of AIA Miami, and their distinguished service to the community representing the ideals of the profession.

ELIGIBILITY for AWARD

Nominee must have completed ten cumulative years of AIA membership prior to the nomination deadline.

1. Must have been part of three committees, task forces, or elected positions at the three AIA levels (local, state, and national), or
2. Must have designed three buildings of exceptional architectural prominence. This to be determined by the Board after a process of nominations and selection of projects, or
3. Must have written and published at least three books about architecture or have written and published at least three articles of significance about architecture in a major publication

Awards shall only be given once a year and may be withheld in any year.

NOMINATIONS:

Nominations shall be made in one of two ways: by five AIA members, or by the Nominating Committee as outlined below.

SELECTION and AWARD:

A jury composed of five AIA Miami members, three of which are previous Hall of Fame recipients, or AIA Miami Fellows, and the current and past president. The jury shall consider all nominees equally with no discrimination as to gender, race, religion, national origin, or sexual orientation. A three-quarters vote of the committee is required to make an award.
